CHIEF JOSEPH.

One of the Noblest Figures and Greatest Warriors In Indian History.

One of the noblest figures in Indian history and one of the greatest warriors is the Nez Perce chief Joseph In this same year, 1877 he had resisted attempts to put him and his band on the Lapwai reservation in western Idaho and had sought to carry all his people hundreds of miles to Canada He outran the force that General Howard had on his trail, escaped from Big Hole, where General Gibbon fought him, and again from General Sturgis, who engaged him in the Yellowstone valley. Sturgis had been sent out by Miles, and when the latter, on the evening of Sept 19, heard what had occurred, he started the same night with all the available force of the Tongue river cantonment to head off Chief Joseph before he should reach the border

Hard marching brought the command, on the last day of the month, to Joseph's village in the Bear Paw mountains The heroic attack was resisted with a valor as heroic, and in a short time Captain Hale, Lieutenant Biddle and 22 soldiers were killed and 4 officers and 38 soldiers wounded, among them being Lieutenant Baird of the general's staff On gallant charge by Captain Carter, with a small body of Fifth infantry, had cost over a third of his command Promptly varying his plans, therefore, and adapting them to the situation, the general moved up his artillery, and disposed the troops so as to hold the Indians under siege, with escape impossible

On the sixth day Chief Joseph advanced to surrender It was a scene for a painter, a typical scene in American history, when this noble looking warrior facing General Miles, a worthy counterpart in mien and bearing, handed his rifle to his white conqueror, and with impressive dignity pointed to the sun in the heavens, saying, "From where the sun now stands, I fight no more"

General Miles, in announcing the victory, used the terse, significant phrase, "We have had our usual success" His full report described his brave adversaries as "the boldest men and best marksmen of any Indians I have ever encountered," and Chief Joseph as "a man of more sagacity and intelligence than any Indian I have ever met" —George E Pond in McClure's Magazine

Bob, an ambitious boy a little more than 6 years old, has only one wish—to become a journalist The other day he entered the room of his mother, a look of triumph upon his face

"How do you know it?"

NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1896.

NOT LANGEVINIZED.

The Tribune has not been "Laugevinized," and is as anxious as the JOURNAL to see the men guilty of robbing the mint convicted, regardless where it may strike, but it objects to Silver party papers by inference trying to fasten guilt upon a man because he happens to be indicted. If Jones is guilty we say convict him, but we object to railroading him into prison unless the proof is absolutely convincing.

The above is the Carson Tribune's reply to the JOURNAL's comments on the mint steal. The Tribune under its present management has treated the mint robbery impartially, and the JOURNAL regrets that it does not continue to do so. A few months ago under the former management the Tribune strenuously endeavored to create the impression that the Silver party and the Silver party only, was responsible for the mint shortage.

Its utterances were echoed by every goldbug sheet in the State, but since investigation has proven that the shortage occurred before the Silver men had ought to do with the mint, the gold papers have maintained a studied silence on the subject and evidently do not want the thieves prosecuted. The Silver papers want no man convicted because he is a gold man, but they do want the thieves who have been plundering the Government and depositors at the mint hunted down and punished whether they call themselves gold men or Silver men. Partisanism should not be a shield to robbers for if it is used to protect them, the ends of justice will be defeated.

The Silver party papers, so far as can be judged from what they say, do not want Mr. Jones or anybody else railroaded to prison, but in common with all good citizens, they want every man, regardless of politics, who robbed depositors and the Government, while in the mint, convicted and punished.

CONTRACTION OF THE CURRENCY.

Notwithstanding the steady increase in population, the currency of the country is being contracted instead of being expanded to meet the requirements of commerce. The United States Treasury now holds $115,500,000 United States notes or greenbacks and $22,000,000 Treasury notes issued under the Bullion Purchase Act of 1890, which have been redeemed with gold. It is also asserted that the banks and Treasury together hold at least $300,000,000 of the $480,000,000 in paper currency outstanding, leaving but $180,000,000 in circulation for the use of the people. This is a contraction of the currency amounting to about $300,000,000. The $47,000,000 in gold produced by the mines in 1895 does not supply the European demand, not making any allowance for what is used in the arts. No new greenbacks or Treasury notes are being issued, and the greater part of those in circulation a few years ago are in the Treasury and the banks, and no silver is being coined, except minor coins to be used in making change. The purposes of the Gold Trust is to control all the money in the world, and both the Executive and Legislative Departments of the Government assist the trust.

How long will the people of the United States permit this condition to exist? Voting the Republican or the Democratic ticket will not change it; in fact, it is an endorsement of the policy of those parties. To-day the United States Treasury is completely at the mercy of the gold syndicate, which may drain the Reserve Fund of its last dollar at any time it finds it profitable to do so, and the President and Congress seems to be in league with the syndicate.

GOLD AND SILVER PRODUCT.

The Director of the Mint has received reports from the several gold and silver producing States from which he estimates the total product of the United States at $47,000,000 in gold and 47,000,000 ounces of silver. California leads as a gold producing State the output for 1895 being $15,600,000. The silver product of the State in the same period was 154,000 fine ounces. Nevada produced in 1895 $1,700,000 in gold and 622,000 ounces of silver. At the present low price of silver very few mines that do not produce gold as well as silver can be worked in Nevada. A large percentage of the value of Comstock ores is gold. Colorado ranks second only to California as a gold producing State. It is credited with $15,000,000 in 1895, which is very close to California.

The 47,000,000 ounces of silver produced in the United States last year was worth only about $24,000,000, as the price of the bullion was fixed in London. The gold product was therefore about twice that of silver in value. This is due to the fact that the mints of the United States and Europe are open to gold and closed to silver. If the conditions were reversed it is claimed by economists that no one could tell what the price of gold would be.

THE Canadians claim that there are 10,000 diciplined men in Montreal who are ready to dash across the line into the United States and devastate the frontier in the event of war with England. The St. Louis Republic says unless the details for a retreat are well arranged some poet laureate will have a better theme than Balaklava.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Republican Senators Discussing the Tariff Bill—The House Committee on Pacific Railroads Meet.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—The Republican Senators went into caucus at 10:30 to-day, but adjourned at 12 to meet again after the conclusion of the day's session in the Senate. The entire time of the caucus was consumed discussing proposed amendments to the Tariff bill, but no formal expression was secured upon any of them, this being left until the afternoon session. The prevailing sentiment appeared to be against all the amendments and the tendency favorable to reporting the bill as it came from the House.

Several Senators expressed doubts as to the wisdom of the bill in any shape, and there was evidently a disposition to regard the bill as purely an emergency measure.

Senator Quay moved the adoption of the House bill, but the motion was lost sight of in a general discussion.

Baker, the new Senator from Kansas, made a vigorous speech in opposition to the House bill if it came before the Senate unattended.

He said that if any tariff legislation is to be enacted he thought that it should be done on Republican and protection lines. He also favored a course of non-action, in view of the declaration of the Administration that the present tariff would afford all the revenue needed. He thought, however, that if any legislation should be attempted, this time the changes should be made in a few schedules only, such as these covering wool and sugar, which should be reformed upon purely protection lines. Other speeches were made by Senators Allison, Aldrich, Perkins, Hale, Chandler, Hawley and Burrows.

Senator Burrows contended for an advance in the rates on chemicals, oils, metals and agricultural products, while Perkins advocated in strong language the placing of sugar on a footing of equality with other products. Allison and Aldrich explained briefly the attitude of the Republican members of the Finance Committee, saying that they were of the opinion that if changes were to be made they should be in the way of increasing the House rates on agricultural implements, spirits and pottery, and adding sugar to the list to be increased 15 per cent.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate: To be members of the California Debris Commission, Colonel Charles Russell, Major Charles E. L. B. Davis and Captain C. E. Gillette, all of the Corps of Engineers.

The first meeting of the House Committee on Pacific Railroads, held to-day, was largely a formal affairs for organization, and while no definite step was taken toward forming a plan to adjust the indebtedness of the roads to the Government, it was decided to begin that work at once and hold the first meeting for the purpose on Saturday next. Hearings to interested parties, if they are granted, will be brief.

The House Committee on Judiciary to-day agreed to report a resolution calling upon the Attorney General for information as to why proceedings had not been taken to enforce the anti-trust law. The House adopted the resolution.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Nearly $3,000,000 in gold is engaged for shipment from New York to Europe to-day.

Emperor William of Germany declares that he would not recognize any claim of suzerainty over the Transvaal, though Great Britain by treaty claims such suzerainty.

The correspondent of Reuter's Telegraph Company at Johannesburg has been arrested upon suspicion of being a spy in the interest of the British South African Company.

There is trouble in the east of London, caused by the feeling against the Germans. Dutch sailors were beaten and Germans were hissed. The windows in shops kept by German Jews were broken and several German shops were closed.

A Berlin dispatch contradicts a statement in the London Times that Secretary of State Lyde of the South African Republic had arranged for a German colonization company, with the intention of introducing 5,000 German military settlers in the Transvaal.

It is believed in Washington that the substitute for the Bond bill passed by the House, reported by the Senate Finance Committee, will after a prolonged debate pass the Senate. It is also surmised that a Free Coinage amendment will be made to the Tariff bill.

W. C. Hall, station agent at Jerome, Arizona, was robbed of $80 by masked men. There were three other men in the office with Hall at the time, but they were not armed. The office is located near the smelter of the United Verde Company, and is one of the most public places in the village.

Sensational dispatches poured into Washington yesterday from Wall street, inquiring about the Treasury situation, and it is thought probable that the popular loan scheme will have to be abandoned and that another deal will have to be made with the gold syndicate within ten days to protect the reserve.

Mrs. Davidson took the stand in her own behalf in Judge Campbell's court, San Francisco, yesterday, and told the story of her life before coming to San Francisco. She said she taught Sunday-school in the First Congregational Church, and that Dr. Brown commenced her work before and after he paid h...

A large number of men are working on shares under great difficulties, yet are making good wages.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

The Number Received in That Market Last Year.

The Chicago Live Stock Report gives the number of cattle, sheep and hogs received in the market in 1895 and 1894 as follows:

CATTLE.

Receipts 1895	2,588,558
Receipts 1894	2,974,483
Decrease	385,925

While values upon steer cattle are 50 cents to $1 per 100 lbs. lower than a year ago, and only the better grades of cows and heifers are selling anywhere near their quotations of that time, the close of the year is much more favorable than was that of 1894

SHEEP.

Receipts 1895	3,406,709
Receipts 1894	3,099,025
Increase	307,184

No department of the live stock business of the yards furnishes more surprises in the matter of receipts and fluctuations than this branch of the industry. The low prices of the fall of 1893 put immense numbers of sheep on feed. These, with a big run of rangers, made supplies in 1894 the largest the market had ever known. A similar condition of affairs in 1894, and the unusually fine condition of the range country the past spring and summer have again caused all records to be broken, the past year's run at Chicago being 300,000 head greater than that of 1891. During the year values have made sharp advances and latterly as sharp declines, and it is worthy of note that as compared with one year ago there is but slight difference in the range of prices.

HOGS.

Receipts 1895	7,885,233
Receipts 1894	7,483,928
Increase	401,955

The past year has been a record of surprising fluctuations both in prices and supplies. As high as $5 70 per 100 lbs. has been paid, and as low as $3 40 has bought the very best hogs on the market. The banner day's run belongs to 1895, the supply of February 11th being 74,551 head. The year's receipts foot up the second largest in the history of the yards, or 700,000 less than the run of 8,600,805 in 1891.

A Skating Episode.

A party of skaters from Reno visited Alexander's reservoir Sunday expecting to have a merry time. One of the most startling experiences of the excursionists and one that rather cooled the enthusiasm of two of the party is told as follows: A prominent young man who is spending his vacation in Reno was gliding along over the frozen surface with a charming young lady, endeavoring to be graceful and entertaining at the same moment, when suddenly the young lady, giving a slight scream, disappeared, she having unluckily skated into an air hole. The young man was horrified and struck out for shore Other members of the party immediately took in the situation and the lady was soon safe on land. A big fire was built and she was made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances, but her romantic dream of how a strong armed young man would rescue her from a watery grave had grown chilly and died in the pond. She had to lie flat on the ice in an undignified position and be dragged ashore with a fence board.

Board of Commissioners.

The County Commissioners ended a two-days' session yesterday. Considerable business was transacted pertaining to the regular annual settlements, etc. The usual monthly bills were allowed and ordered paid.

A list of trial jurors to serve for the ensuing year was made out and some business of minor importance transacted.

A Private Question Answered Publicly.

Every day I am asked the following question: "Mrs. Hunter, tell us honestly, do you think Viavi as good as represented?" Yes, my friends, better! LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Items From Here, There and Everywhere.

The Silver State say L. Dean, buyer for the Western Meat Co. of Baden, has purchased about 500 head of beef cattle from Evans & Curtner.

The strike at the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad shops at Buffalo is ended. The company agrees that no more men will be discharged on account of lack of work, but that the hours of labor be reduced, and they may belong to labor unions.

Prospectors and railroad men from the desert at Indio, report seeing immense quantities of smoke and steam arising off the desert toward the volcanoes below the Cocopah mountains during the day and a bright light at night, showing that the volcanoes in that vicinity are again in active operation.

In speaking of Christmas generosity on the Comstock the Enterprise mentioned the fact that the V. & T. railroad gave away 20 cords of wood to the poor of Virginia, but an equally commendable charity was the donation of 10 cords of wood to poor families here by Yerington, Bliss & Co.

Yesterday's Excursion.

About seventy-five excursionists left for Truckee on yesterday morning's west-bound passenger. Mr. H. W. Higgins was master of ceremonies and although the excursion was gotten up in a hurry he carried out every detail that had been advertised. The excursionists returned last evening fully satisfied with the trip and varied experiences of the day. Upon their arrival at Truckee a band was in attendance and the visitors were made welcome. They scattered about and were shown through the ice palace, went skating, some took a sleigh ride to Donner Lake and nearly all tried the toboggan slide. It is quite amusing to hear some of the ladies tell of their ride on the toboggan. Many of them wanted to scream, but before they could draw a breath to let out a good yell they had made the quarter of a mile run and were ready to try it over. The palace is said to be very pretty and last night before the train left for Reno it was lighted up and presented a beautiful sight. The McGlashin tower, over eighty feet high, is the principal feature of the palace and the electric lights make it a grand spectacle at night.

Truckee and vicinity presents a typical winter scene. Deep snow, mountains and forests are on every hand. Visitors from the warm valleys of California go into ecstacies over it all, and the carnival promises to be a grand success. New features will be introduced during the winter and every effort will be made by the Truckeeites to have every visitor get more than his money's worth before he leaves town.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phœbe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this remedy for coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Hodgkinson's Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.

Stock Shipments.

The following figures will give an idea of the increase of stock shipments from Nevada to Kansas City during the ten months of 1895, ending October 31:

From—	1894.	1895.	Increase.
Utah	2,129	6,140	4,111
Idaho	240	4,980	4,740
Wyoming	1,494	3,603	2,109
Nevada	802	4,104	3,302
Totals	4,665	19,007	14,042

Chicago and Omaha receipts show a decrease for the year from the same sources.

The above figures demonstrate that Nevada is fast coming to the front as a stock center.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys, will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c. per bottle at Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Leaders of the Cuban Revolutionary Committee are in Washington, urging the recognition of the Cubans as belligerents. There is a sentiment in the House in favor of this Government doing all in its power, consistent with international usages, to assist the Cubans.

Late news from Havana is to the effect that there is no probability of a fight in the near future between the Spanish troops and the Cubans now around Havana. All the Spanish troops available are being brought west toward Havana. It is reported that General Martinez Campos has resigned.

The hearing of the injunction suit of the Southern Pacific Company against the California Railroad Commission to restrain the Commission from carrying into effect its proposed schedule of reduced freight rates, was resumed yesterday in the United States Court before Judge McKenna. The Attorney-General read the affidavit of Chairman La Rue of the Commission, showing the valuation of the railroad. Attorney Herrin, in behalf of the company, objected to the affidavit, claiming that it was immaterial. The Attorney-General stated that the figures were from the report of the Congressional Committee on Railroads. Yet Judge McKenna sustained the objection.

Westphalian Witches Were Red Haired.

Soest, in Westphalia, Prussia, was the Salem of the European witch burning era, and, by the way, the witchcraft delusion lasted for three or four centuries longer there than it did in the benighted burg in the colony of Massachusetts bay. The judicial tribunal before which all Westphalian witches were forced to appear was called the vehm-gericht and was composed of the most superstitious set of bigots in the province. The trees are still standing under which this witch trying congress regularly met on the commons of Soest and the records of their proceedings are still to be found in the archives at the town hall.

One of the most noticeable things in these queer old records of the days of bigotry and blind superstition is the fact that the pages upon which are written the proceedings of cases in which the accused were condemned to the stake are all adorned with locks of the culprit's hair. The individual hairs of this queer collection of tufts exhibit all the variations usually noticed in such assortments, being long and short, coarse and fine and straight and curly. In one very characteristic feature, however, that of color, all the locks have the same general appearance, being uniformly red.

It is passing curious, to say the least, that in a country where red hair does not predominate all the witches executed during a period covering several hundred years should belong to that class of beings derisively referred to as "brick top blonds."—St. Louis Republic.

Odd Delusions.

In a recent lecture in London, by Dr. W. R. Gowers of the Royal society, some curious facts were stated concerning the optical delusions suffered by victims of epilepsy at the commencement of their attacks.

One man for years was always warned of a coming fit by a sensation of thumping or beating in the chest, which gradually extended to the head. Then two pulsating lights appeared, which seemed to draw nearer. In an instant these were gone, and in their place was the figure of an aged woman wearing a red cloak, and always the same in appearance and dress, who offered the patient something that had the odor of Tonquin beans. Then the patient invariably lost consciousness.

Another case cited was that of a woman whose attacks were invariably preceded by a vision of London lying in ruins, the channel of the Thames being emptied of water in order to receive the rubbish of the destroyed city, and the patient believing herself to be the only survivor of all its inhabitants.

Still another patient always seemed to know well, just before an attack, to have been lying down in the midst of a broad field of grass.

The cause of these singular deceptions lies in the brain, but its mode of working is not yet thoroughly understood

"Dear Sirs: A little over a year ago I had a swelling come on the side of my neck. I was in very poor health generally and doctored two months with the family physician who said my complaint was a bilious attack. His treatment failed to help me so I determined to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. To my great joy, the swelling on the side of my neck disappeared. I was benefited for my other ailments. After taking three bottles of the medicine, I have not had a sick day since. I for one, recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to the afflicted, knowing what it has done for me in the past. The Lord Chancellor's Purse.

When the lord chancellor enters the house of lords to preside over its deliberations, he is accompanied by his "purse bearer." This functionary, however, does not carry the purse of the lord chancellor, which would be a weighty responsibility, as his lordship draws a salary of £10,000 a year. The purse the "pursebearer" solemnly carries, as, arrayed in court dress, he precedes the lord chancellor to and from the house of lords, is a precious satchel, embroidered with the royal arms and other heraldic devices in white and gold and lined with the richest silk. It is supposed to contain the great seal. As a matter of fact, that emblem of a mighty sovereignty is never in the satchel. If it were, the responsibility of the "pursebearer" would be great—much greater indeed than if he had to bear a purse that carried a salary of £10,000 a year.

The ceremony of carrying the purse in the house of lords is but one of the many venerable fictions which play a picturesque part in the parliamentary procedure. The purse is placed on the woolsack. It indicates that the lord chancellor is in possession of the great seal and therefore entitled to perform his duties as speaker of the house of lords.

A Rare Coin.

When Louisiana seceded, Jan. 26, 1861, the new government seized the United States mint at New Orleans and struck $254,820 in double eagles and $1,101,816.50 in silver half dollars, using the United States dies for 1861. The bullion was exhausted in May, 1861, when the coinage ceased, and the United States dies were destroyed. A Confederate states die was then made, to be used for silver half dollars, but it was not fit for use in a coining press, the relief being too high. Four half dollars were struck with it on a screw press and these comprise the entire coinage of the Confederate states. They are worth about $250 apiece to dealers.—Collector.

Singing Mice.

Some few years since there was at Coley Hall, near Halifax, a singing mouse, which lived for several years in a hole near the fireplace in one of the rooms and became very tame, Mr. A. G. Sunderland not allowing it to be disturbed. Many people came to hear it so called singing. This mouse appeared perfectly fat and healthy, and met its end accidentally.

Another correspondent says: With reference to singing mice, I may say that I caught one last year and kept it in a cage. That they do not sing for pleasure, as a bird does, is evident from the fact that it sang even when frightened, and the singing was evidently due to some difficulty in breathing, which, however, appeared to cause it no great inconvenience, as it fed well and was in fair condition when caught. The "singing" soon became monotonous, and I therefore restored the mouse to his sorrowing relatives.

One watch set right will do to set many by; one that goes wrong may be the means of misleading a whole neighborhood, and the same may be said of example.—Dilwin.

The State of Nevada sends to Ernest Leslie Parker greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Mary Catherine Parker as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover a decree of divorce forever, dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between you and said plaintiff on the grounds of desertion by you of plaintiff for more than one year last past, prior to the commencement of said action; also for failure on your part to provide plaintiff with the common necessaries of life for more than one year last past, prior to the commencement of this action; also to be awarded the care, custody and control of the two minor children, Ernest Martin Parker and Violet Kinau Parker, the issue of said marriage between you and said plaintiff.

All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand at Reno this 10th day of December A. D. 1895. H. A. WALDO,
